jaldi hi! Ever since you have gone to Kota I've been thinking about the words I would write in this exact letter and Ananya honestly no set of words feels complete enough to define how perfect you are and no set of words can describe how complete you make me feel. I did not (do not) want to be overly dramatic or moreover poetic types but just trying to explain to you how much you really mean to me, I always feel like I am jaldi hi!

Even since you have gone to Kota I've been thinking about the words I would write in this exact letter and Ananya honestly no set of words feels complete enough to define how perfect you are and no set of words can describe how complete you make me feel. I did not (do not) want to be overly dramatic or moreover poetic types but just trying to explain to you how much you really mean to me, I always feel like I am leaving something out.

but I wanted to take atleast this time, this mement, this day and these eighty four thousand seconds to tell you the things that lately I haven't been saying enough

You MATTER to me,
A Lot,
and I LOVE You
Also A lot,

There is just something about the way that you carry yourself
it's just, different.
Even though I only see it on face-
time hi aaj kal,
I can just say,
the thoughtfulness

There is just something about the way that you carry yourself it's just, different. Even though I only see it on face-time hi aaj kal, I can just say, the thoughtfulness the sometimes playfulness and the 'seriousness' it's just kinda addictive!

All these characteristics and somehow you and only have always stayed real. You ground everything around you even when it is all just chaotic as hell. You make all of the space around me feel lighter and I just love it so very much.

And a fact is I love how you're not always trying to impress anyone (except me and your family). You just Are and somehow that is just so so much more impressive than any thing that could ever be forced ♥ And while doing all this you, my baby still somehow take out the time to care and take out-the time notice all these who surround you. And being cared for by you? A literal goddess that has come down in human form. ♥

Ab I dont
